Re: U.S. v. Adedayo John, Case No. 1:21-cr-00609-LAP-1
Request for Defendant to Move and Transfer Supervision

Dear Judge Preska:

I am requesting that the above defendant be permitted to move to Katy, TX on March 1, 2024. Mr. John pleaded guilty on January 4 and will be sentenced on April 10. Mr. John's girlfriend and their three young children moved to Texas in 2023 due to increased costs of living and childcare in New York. This court permitted Mr. John to assist with that move. We request that he now be permitted to spend the remaining time before the commencement of his sentence in Katy, TX with his loved ones.

Pretrial services does not object to this request and is prepared to undertake the transfer of Mr. John's supervision to the Southern District of Texas should this request be granted. The government defers to pretrial services.

Thank you for your time and consideration in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

SO ORDERED
